ABOUT MILAN

Milan is Italy's high-powered financial, industrial and fashion capital, home to the country's stock exchange and most famous fashion houses, as well as two international football teams. In recent years Milan has seen a rebirth with public spaces restored to their original glory and the banks of the canals reclaimed by new boutiques, cafes and restaurants. Despite the cosmopolitan atmosphere and modern flair, there is a rich history to this city of high culture just waiting to be unveiled ... Milan's magnificent Gothic Duomo is the city's most famous landmark; one of the most famous paintings in the world, Leonardo Da Vinci's Last Supper housed in the Convent of Santa Maria delle Grazie; La Scala, opened its doors in 1778 and is still one of the world's most famous opera houses; Sforzesco Castle, one of the largest fortresses in Europe, is now home to seven of Milan's most prestigious museums; Canals of the Navigli District have been transformed into a trendy hotspot for young and old alike, with restaurants, boutiques, galleries and decaying, moored barges that are now floating bars; lastly, Milan remains one of the best places in the world for high-fashion, designer shopping.
